FOR CLEAN HEAT AND A CLEAN BURNER GET sta-clean in AMERICAN Grand HEATING OIL

Cut-away of nozzle shows where ordinary oil can form deposits and prevent heating efficiency. STA-CLEAN keeps nozzles clean.

STA-CLEAN®, in AMERICAN Brand Furnace Oil, is a detergent, preservative and rust-fighter. It disperses impurities so they pass harmlessly through the burner nozzle—cleans filters left dirty by other oils—fights rust—protects fuel systems and burner for clean, efficient heat!

Minister Named In Who's Who

Dr. A. G. Guy, pastor of First Christian Church, Wewoka, Oklahoma, is included in the forthcoming 'Who's Who in the South and the Great Southwest, published by Marquis Publishers of Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Guy is married to the former Miss Faith Lewis, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Lewis, Appomattox.

Dr. Guy, holder of eight degrees, has four Masters degrees in various fields, Master of Theology, Education, Religious Education, and Missions. He has completed virtually all the requirements for a fifth Master's degree in church history.

His accomplishments include two extensive research projects, one in the area of audio visual education and the other in the field of curriculum education particularly for senior high youth of the Christian church.

His poetry has appeared in several newspapers and magazines.

He is now a member of the state board of the Oklahoma Association of Christian Churches.

For more than three years he was one of the four chaplains in a state hospital and has served as campus minister for his district in Texas. Before coming to his present pastorate he was pastor of First Christian Church in Breckenridge, Texas and also pastor of a Mexican Christian mission in that same city.

The Guys have three children: Arnold Owen, Jr., a ministerial student at Oklahoma Baptist University, Okmulgee, Oklahoma; Rebecca Faith, a senior at Wewoka High School, and Ruth Ann, a sophomore.

Still Room In Red Cross Class

Although the first session of two Red Cross courses was held on Monday there is still time for additional students to enroll at Appomattox High School this coming Monday night at 7 p.m.

First Aid and Home Nursing are being taught with Kenneth Jamerson, the First Aid, Standard and Advanced, instructor, and Mrs. Betsy Jamerson, the instructor for Home Nursing. For further information call the Jamersons, 352-2219.

D. A. R. To Meet

The Appomattox Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will have their meeting Thursday afternoon, March 19th, at 3:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Sam's McDermon, the hostiar at Pamplin. Mrs. Carlton Wayne and Mrs. Linda Maurice Franklin will be hostesses with Mrs. Farrar.

Miss Franklin will have the program on American Music and Mrs. Joseph B. Terry, Regent, will give a resume on the annual report of the chapter's accomplishments during the past year.

Gala Evening For Hostesses, Guests

In keeping with the Centennial commemoration of the War Between the States, the Junior Woman's Club members will wear long dresses to the Appomattox Recital Pageant April 10 at the Appomattox High School.

And one of the highlights of the evening will be dinner at Maude's preceding the 8 p.m. show, with Miss Virginia Dorcas Campbell, p'us the master of ceremonies for the pageant, contest, judges, and others.

Dedication Made To Mrs. Harwood

The annual banquet of the Susie Taylor Whittinghill Y.W.A. organization of Liberty Baptist Church, Appomattox was dedicated to present WMU president, Mrs. A. B. Harwood, Jr.

The dedication read in part, "Through her example of the Christian life, we have learned the art of empathy. Through her giving of herself, we understand how to give more fully of ourselves. Through her love for us, we have learned a love for all people. Through her unceasing work for the Y.W.A.'s we have learned that Y.W.A. is more than a missionary organization, but rather a vast movement of young women through which we have a real part in winning the world to our living Lord. Thank you, Mrs. Harwood."

Easter Seals Aid Crippled

Children and adults with physical handicaps who need medical care and special tic treatment in Appomattox County may find the help they need from the Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Robert C. Price, Executive Director, announced Easter Seal Society offers medical, occupational, and hearing therapy, as orthopedic aids and appliances to both children and crippled by strokes, arthritis, birth defects, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, arthritis, paraplegia, muscular dystrophy or speech impediments.

The Easter Seal offers parents, doctors, nurses, clergymen, and other individuals and organizations to refer crippled persons in need of assistance to the Society headquarters, P. O. Box 1, Roanoke, Virginia.

Through this program, aided by contributions to Easter Seals, persons are received rehabilitation services in 1963.
